International relocations are truly unsettling for the whole family. Trading your familiar workplace, school, social life, friends and family for the unknown has a big effect on all family members. The sooner everyone feels at home the better. Finding the right home in the best area to live can be a tremendous help for all family members to get accepted in a community and feel at home.

myhomematters is ready to welcome you to The Hague. Whether you visit our region for a first orientation or if you've already decided to move here, myhomematters can support you and your family. Not only do we know what it is like to move country, we have an extensive knowledge of The Hague and surroundings. We will find you that perfect place you can call home.

Orientation

If you are still considering your move and you would like to familiarise yourself with life in The Hague we offer to take you on a tour around the region.
You will visit the most recommended suburbs in order to get a general idea about the types of houses, the atmosphere and amenities. You will inspect some houses to get a better understanding of the housing market, housing styles and rental costs. You will be shown ways of transport to and from your office, schools, sports facilities and the city.
At the end of the day you should be able to decide whether our region offers you and your family a suitable place to live and work.

Home Search

myhomematters will provide a shortlist of properties that suit your needs and budget.
All possible sources are used to find you a perfect home, whether it is a rental property or house for sale, whether it is a city apartment or a family home in a leafy suburb. We use our reliable network of real estate agents and investors. myhomematters arranges for you to inspect your favourite picks. If required myhomematters can assist you with the negotiations and legal contracts.

Myhomematters operates fully independently and is not liaised with any real estate agent.
That way we can select the best properties for you based on your own preferences.

Arrival

Well before your arrival in The Hague we will ask you to inform us about your family size, the planning of your move and any services you need from us. myhomematters has a wide range of services on offer for you, including assistance with airport transfers, temporary accommodation, utilities connections, leasing or purchase of furniture and white goods, opening bank accounts, cross cultural training and more.

Feel free to tell us about your needs. We are happy to help you.
